

SPORTS LICENSING AND TAILGATE SHOW 2021 FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How did you make this decision?

Continued developments have made it impossible to effectively deliver the level of connection and discovery our community expects from the Sports Licensing and Tailgate Show. This is due to the ongoing impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, including current government restrictions and limitations on large gatherings imposed in Nevada and other local government and public health authorities; the inability for a significant part of the Sports Licensing community to travel to the show due to travel restrictions and bans; and the various company-imposed travel restrictions on employees affecting attendees and participating companies.

Find more information on the current status of in-person gatherings and related restrictions in Las Vegas, click here.

Will there be an in-person event this January in Las Vegas?

No. The next in-person SLTS is scheduled for January 19-21, 2022 at the Las Vegas Convention Center.

Will there be a virtual event instead?

We are working to create new opportunities for exhibitors and attendees to connect. We will keep you informed as details become available.

If I already made travel plans for SLTS, who do I contact to cancel?

We recommend cancelling any air and ground travel arrangements as soon as possible. Many airlines, hotels and lodging companies are offering flexible refund options at this time due to the COVID-19 situation. Please contact your airline or travel provider directly to review options. SLTS official housing was not open, however if you already booked a hotel room please contact that hotel directly.

What if I booked a non-refundable flight and/or lodging for SLTS?

Contact your travel provider as many airlines, hotels and lodging companies are offering flexible refund options at this time due to the COVID-19 situation. SLTS official housing was not open, however if you already booked a hotel room please contact that hotel directly.

What if I receive a message from someone claiming to provide access to Sports Licensing and Tailgate Show attendee lists/contacts, hotel reservations or other?

Please be cautious should you receive unsolicited emails from someone claiming to have access to SLTS attendee lists/contacts or asking you to register for the show or for other information. This may be an example of an emerging scam targeting attendees and exhibitors of large events that have been cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. See a list of SLTS approved vendors here.

FOR EXHIBITORS

Can I apply my deposit toward SLTS 2022?

All exhibitors and sponsors can roll deposits over to the January 2022 show or to digital opportunities. Each company will be required to submit their request through an online portal. Matt Lawson will be in touch on next steps.

What if I opt not to be contracted for a 2022 show?

If you opt not to be contracted for a 2022 show at this time, a refund of your 2021 exhibit space and/or sponsor deposit payment will be issued. Each company will be required to submit their request through an online portal. Matt will be in touch on next steps.

What is the timeline for receiving refunds?

Matt will be in touch with exhibitors and provide additional information around refund processes. Please note, due to the unprecedented nature of the situation, refunds may take time and we ask for your patience as they are processed.

I recently cancelled due to the coronavirus, would I be eligible for a refund?

If you cancelled at an earlier time, please contact Matt Lawson.